APOLOGIES: Vince Pedavoli.

MINUTE SECRETARY: Allen Wonson.

AGENDA:

1. The letters from Rooty Hill Solicitor and Rudi Diener was discussed, it was then moved and seconded that the Federation Management get our own legal advice to see if under our Constitution the Federation has any legal rights to intervene in the Rooty Hill Club membership dispute.
2. The Secretary gave a report getting a quote on a Liability Insurance Policy. After a general discussion on the matter a vote was taken – four members were in favour of taking out the Policy and 5 members voted against taking out the policy. At this stage the Federation will not go ahead with this Insurance policy.
3. A quote of $82,500.00 was received from AuSTATE Services for the base trailer. However, this may change now we have decided on Stainless Steel water tanks, as we think the quote was for plastic water tanks (Not Stated on the quote)
4. It was moved and seconded that the 25% deposit be paid to AuSTATE Services and request that if possible he holds back on the structural work until the main top section arrives from Germany.
5. The members of the Management Committee agreed to look into the Federation joining the Arena Sports Club on the whole and utilizing the Club as a Federation Home Base. The membership fee for the Arena Sports Club is $5.00 for two years. For the Federation to join on a whole. The Federation will require the full name and address, date of birth of all the paid up members of the Federation. The Club does not require a photo for membership. The Secretary will contact the Clubs as soon as possible.
6. Gary Young who was elected as Senior Vice President at the AGM and Phil Murphy elected as Junior Vice President. Gary asked permission to change positions with Phil Murphy. Permission was granted Phil Murphy will now be Senior Vice President and Gary the roll of Junior Vice President.
